

Ruth

WEEK 3: Ruth 2

Shuffle the Deck

1. Noodle Art. Using white glue, construction paper and a variety of noodles, relive your preschool days and make some noodle art.

2. Got Barley? As cereal grains go, barley is a winner when it comes to good nutrition. This centuries-old grain is packed with fiber, contains important vitamins and minerals, is slim on fat, and, like all plant products, cholesterol-free.

Visit The National Barley Foods Council website (<http://www.barleyfoods.org/recipes.html>) and try a new recipe involving barley. Barley Citrus Sauté, Rock 'm Sock 'm Chili, Barley Fruit Scones, Fillet of Sole with Barley and Asparagus, just to name a few.

3. A Million. If you could have one million _____ (anything besides dollars and/or money) what would it be? What would you do with it?

Deal the Cards

For a study on Ruth, we recommend Premium Roast with Ruth by Sandra Glahn.

Group Option

As a group, discuss the following:

1. Boaz gives a reason for his great kindness towards Ruth – word has gotten around about what she did for Naomi. Speculate on how word got around? Who told whom?
2. Do you consider yourself a global or local person? Are you easily put off balance by differences in people (culture, language, religion, values, etc.)?
3. As a group, is there anything you can do for the poor, orphaned, widowed, or foreigner? Anything you can do individually? Be creative. Think of something that hasn't been done before.

Play Your Hand

Decorate a playing card or a playing-card-sized piece of paper or cardboard with something associated with the following:

1. Sacrifice like Ruth
2. Honor like Boaz
3. Caring for the vulnerable
4. How do you view work?
